Sixty-fourth session
Fifth Committee
Agenda item 132

Proposed programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011

Report of the Fifth Committee*

Rapporteur: Ms. Yuliana Zhivkova Georgieva (Bulgaria)

I. Introduction

1. The previous recommendation made by the Fifth Committee to the General Assembly under agenda item 132 appears in the report of the Committee contained in document A/64/548, in which the Committee provided its recommendation on the question of the capital master plan.

2. The Fifth Committee considered the item at its 10th, 11th, 15th to 18th and 20th to 22nd meetings, on 29 and 30 October, 17 and 24 November and 3, 7, 17, 18 and 23 December 2009. Statements and observations made in the course of the Committee's consideration of the item are reflected in the relevant summary records (A/C.5/64/SR.10, 11, 15-18 and 20-22).

3. At the 10th meeting, on 29 October, introductory statements were made by the Secretary-General and the Chairman of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (see A/C.5/64/SR.10).

4. For its consideration of the item, the Committee had before it the following documents:

* At its 22nd meeting, on 23 December 2009, the Fifth Committee considered and adopted its draft report, submitted by the Secretariat on behalf of the Rapporteur, which had been circulated in the Committee under the provisional symbol A/C.5/64/L.23 (see A/C.5/64/SR.22) and is reproduced in its entirety in the present document.

[7] A/64/6 (Sect. 34)/Add.1, A/64/532, A/63/605 and A/62/641.

10 December 2009 from the President of the General Assembly addressed to the Chairman of the Fifth Committee,[8] the report of the Secretary-General on limited budgetary discretion[9] and the related reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[10]

Having also considered chapter II, section A, of the report of the Committee for Programme and Coordination on its forty-ninth session,[11] the consolidated report of the Secretary-General on the changes to the biennial programme plan as reflected in the programme budget for 2008-2009[12] and the consolidated report of the Secretary-General on the changes to the biennial programme plan as reflected in the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011,[13]

Having further considered the report of the Independent Audit Advisory Committee on the proposed programme budget for internal oversight for the biennium 2010-2011,[14] the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the audit of human resources management at the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights,[15] the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the efficiency of the implementation of the mandate of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights[16] and the related note by the Secretary-General,[17] the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the audit of conference services put at the disposal of the Human Rights Council in 2009[18] and the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the comprehensive management audit of the Department of Safety and Security,[19]

Having considered the notes by the Secretary-General transmitting the reports of the Joint Inspection Unit on the review of management of Internet websites in the United Nations system organizations,[20] the review of information and communication technology hosting services in the United Nations system organizations,[21] liaison offices in the United Nations system[22] and a common payroll for United Nations system organizations,[23] as well as the notes by the Secretary-General transmitting his comments and those of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination thereon,[24]

Recognizing the detrimental effect of the withholding of assessed contributions on the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations and the ability to implement mandates and programmes,

1. Stresses that all Member States should fulfil their financial obligations as set out in the Charter of the United Nations on time, in full and without conditions;

2. Reaffirms that the Fifth Committee is the appropriate Main Committee of the General Assembly entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters and reaffirms the role of the Fifth Committee in carrying out a thorough analysis and approving human and financial resources and policies, with a view to ensuring full, effective and efficient implementation of all mandated programmes and activities and the implementation of policies in this regard;

3. Also reaffirms rule 153 of its rules of procedure;

4. Further reaffirms the Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation;[25]

5. Reaffirms the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations;[26]

6. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination as contained in chapter II, section A of its report;[11]

7. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

Policy/cross-cutting issues

8. Reaffirms the established budgetary procedures and methodologies, based on its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986 and 42/211 of 21 December 1987;

9. Reaffirms paragraph 21 of its resolution 51/221 B of 18 December 1996, in which it decided that no changes to the budget methodology, to established budgetary procedures and practices or to the financial regulations could be implemented without prior review and approval by the General Assembly, through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, in accordance with agreed budgetary procedures;

10. Stresses the need for the Member States to participate fully in the budget preparation process, from its early stages and throughout the process;

11. Emphasizes the importance of providing the consistent and timely information necessary to enable Member States to make well-informed decisions;

12. Reiterates the priorities of the Organization for the period 2010-2011 as outlined in its resolution 63/266 of 24 December 2008;

13. Also reiterates that the allocation of resources should reflect fully the priorities established in the biennial programme plan;

14. Notes with concern that the allocation of resources in the proposed programme budget does not track precisely the priorities of the Organization, as adopted in resolution 63/266 of 24 December 2008, and stresses the need to correct

imbalances in the allocation of resources among the three pillars of the Organization;

15. Recalls paragraph 10 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and stresses the need for presenting the budget in a comprehensive and holistic manner and requests the Secretary-General, for all future proposed programme budgets, to take the necessary steps to ensure the fullest possible picture of the Organization's requirements for the full biennium;

16. Urges the Secretary-General to ensure that a complete and timely budget is presented to Member States in the future;

17. Notes the practice of incremental budgeting where only new requirements are justified and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that whenever new proposals lead to requests for additional resources, sufficient efforts are made to meet the new requirements using existing resources;

18. Notes the Secretary-General's effort to meet the emerging needs of the Organization by redeploying existing posts and non-post resources, in accordance with the established rules and procedures and relevant resolutions of the General Assembly;

19. Reaffirms its request to the Secretary-General, in future budget submissions, to propose measures to offset budget increases, wherever possible, without undermining the implementation of mandated programmes and activities;

20. Requests the Secretary-General to intensify efforts to ensure that direct and quantifiable objectives, expected accomplishments and indicators of achievement are included in future proposed programme budgets that are directly and clearly linked to the objectives of the programme and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session through the Committee for Programme and Coordination;

21. Recalls paragraph 29 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and stresses that the proposed programme budget for 2012-2013 should provide a clear picture of the reform measures that have been taken, their budgetary implications and the efficiency gains derived from their implementation as well as an assessment of progress in accomplishing the objectives;

22. Also recalls paragraph 21 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and notes that cost accounting is more suitably applied to the support services of the Organization and may not be suitable for use in its substantive work and requests the Secretary-General to develop an effective methodology for measuring and conducting comparisons over time of the costs of support services in the budget and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

23. Reaffirms the role of the Committee for Programme and Coordination as the main subsidiary organ of the General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council for planning, programming and coordination;

24. Notes chapter I, section A of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and in this context reiterates that the Committee for Programme and Coordination is the sole subsidiary organ of the General Assembly for planning, programming and coordination;

25. Emphasizes the importance of continuous efforts to reduce administrative costs as a proportion of the regular budget with a view to maximizing the resources available for programmatic purposes;

26. Recalls paragraph 14 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] stresses that results-based budgeting and results-based management are mutually supportive management tools and that improved implementation of results-based budgeting enhances both management and accountability in the Secretariat, and encourages the Secretary-General to continue his efforts in this regard;

27. Recalls paragraph 1 of its resolution 63/247 of 23 December 2005, in which it approved the recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination, and requests the Secretary-General to further improve the results-based budgeting framework and the qualitative aspects of indicators of achievements, as recommended by the Committee for Programme and Coordination;

28. Reaffirms paragraph 28 of resolution 55/231 of 23 December 2000 and stresses the importance of adequate training to ensure the full implementation of results-based budgeting;

29. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that, in presenting the programme budget, expected accomplishments and, where possible, indicators of achievement are included to measure achievements in the implementation of the programmes of the Organization and not those of individual Member States;

Human resources, vacancy rates and staffing

30. Takes note of paragraph 44 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and stresses that, for budgetary purposes, a post is defined as vacant only if no person is charged against the post, and notes that the enterprise resource planning system should assist in providing comprehensive information on vacancies;

31. Stresses the importance of having a comprehensive succession plan for the Organization, including, inter alia, on the language services, and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to formulate a strategy on succession planning for all departments of the Secretariat and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

32. Requests the Secretary-General to examine the continuing need for posts that fall vacant owing to retirements in the biennium 2010-2011 and to report thereon in the context of the second performance report;

33. Reaffirms the role of the General Assembly with regard to the structure of the Secretariat, including the creation, conversion, suppression and redeployment of posts, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to provide the General Assembly with comprehensive information on all decisions involving established and temporary high-level posts, including equivalent positions financed from the regular budget and from extrabudgetary resources;

34. Reaffirms Article 101, paragraph 3 of the Charter, further reaffirms sections IX and X of its resolution 63/250 of 24 December 2008 and requests the Secretary-General to recruit staff to fill the posts approved in the budget for the biennium 2010-2011 with a view to improving geographical representation and gender balance in the Secretariat, with due regard to the principle of equitable geographical distribution;

35. Regrets the slow pace of recruitment in the Organization and requests the Secretary-General to fill vacancies expeditiously, in accordance with relevant General Assembly resolutions and existing provisions governing recruitment in the United Nations;

36. Reaffirms that the vacancy rate is a tool for budgetary calculations and should not be used to achieve budgetary savings;

37. Decides that a vacancy rate of 9.6 per cent for Professional staff, 4 per cent for General Service staff, 14.0 per cent for Professional field security staff and 14.7 per cent for General Service field security staff, respectively, shall be used as a basis for the calculation of the budget for the biennium 2010-2011;

Extrabudgetary resources

38. Welcomes the efforts by donors to continue to support priorities approved by the General Assembly;

39. Stresses that all extrabudgetary posts must be administered and managed with the same rigour as regular budget posts;

40. Stresses that extrabudgetary resources shall be used in consistency with the policies, aims and activities of the Organization and requests the Secretary-General to provide information on the financial and human resource implications of the use of extrabudgetary resources in the Organization in his next proposed programme budget;

41. Requests the Secretary-General to include, in future budget submissions, clear and specific information on extrabudgetary resources, in order to make a distinction between voluntary and assessed contributions and programme support costs;

Consultants

42. Recalls paragraphs IV.8 and IV.41 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and requests the Secretary-General to select consultants and experts, as well as staff charged against general temporary assistance, on as wide a geographical basis as possible, in accordance with Article 101, paragraph 3 of the Charter and the provisions of General Assembly resolution 53/221 of 7 April 1999;

43. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that, in future programme budget proposals, requests for consultants and experts are clearly and separately identified in the programme narratives;

Training

44. Reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to allocate the approved resources for training on the basis of need and in an equitable manner, throughout the Secretariat, including for duty stations and regional commissions, and in this context stresses that equal training opportunities should be available for all staff, in accordance with their functions and categories;

45. Stresses that workshops, seminars and training courses should take advantage of the diverse sources of training opportunities available throughout the regions of the world;

Conference services and publications

46. Emphasizes the importance of ensuring that there is no discriminatory treatment among the principle organs of the United Nations and the Main Committees and subsidiary bodies, and that they are provided with adequate and quality conference services and support;

Non-post resources

47. Decides to reduce non-post resources by 2 per cent, other than under sections 35 and 28D of the proposed programme budget;

48. Decides also to reduce 7 per cent of the overall requirements for consultants and experts in the biennium 2010-2011;

49. Decides to reduce the overall requirements for external printing by 1 million United States dollars;

Recosting

50. Acknowledges the current challenges caused by the global financial crisis;

51. Decides not to assess in 2010 half of the amount for recosting pending review of the issue in the context of the first performance report;

52. Requests the Secretary-General, in the context of the first performance report on the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011, to report on options for protecting the United Nations against fluctuations in exchange rates and inflation drawing on the experience of other organizations of the United Nations system, as set out in section V of the second performance report of the Secretary-General on the programme budget for the biennium 2008-2009;[28]

Part I. Overall policymaking, direction and coordination

Section 1. Overall policymaking, direction and coordination

[28] A/64/545.

Committee to meet for an additional four weeks per biennium for a total of 78 weeks, on an experimental basis;

55. Notes the ongoing management review of the Secretariat of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;

56. Encourages the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, within its own mandate, to review its working methods and to inform the General Assembly of the results of the review;

57. Recalls paragraph 46 of its resolution 62/228 of 22 December 2007 and decides to establish a post of legal research officer at the P-4 level for the Registry of the United Nations Dispute Tribunal in New York;

Section 2. General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management

58. Recalls that all documents should be translated in conformity with relevant General Assembly resolutions;

59. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that all duty stations are given equal treatment in respect of the application of modern technologies;

60. Emphasizes the paramount importance of the equality of the six official languages of the United Nations;

61. Requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to ensure the highest quality of interpretation and translation services in all official languages;

62. Requests the Secretary-General to improve the on-time submission of documents and to institute measures for the accountability of the author departments for the late submission of documents;

63. Takes note of the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the audit of conference services put at the disposal of the Human Rights Council in 2009;[18]

64. Notes with concern the circumstances that led to insufficient conference services for the Human Rights Council in 2009 and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the Council, as well as other entities served by the Conference Services Division at the United Nations Office at Geneva, are provided with all necessary conference services to support their activities;

65. Requests the Secretary-General to report on ways to better address the needs of the Organization through enhancing the efficiency of services provided by the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management;

66. Notes that the Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review should endeavour to apply in its reports the word limits established in the annex to Human Rights Council President's statement 9/2, and requests the Secretary-General to report on any additional requirements incurred in the context of the second performance report on the programme budget for 2010-2011;

67. Stresses the need for programme managers, and duty stations resourced through section 2 of the programme budget, to be cost-effective and efficient in the use of services from the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management, particularly with respect to the effective functioning of the global management of conference services, and requests the Secretary-General to develop mechanisms that would enhance accountability in this regard;

68. Requests the Secretary-General to undertake a comprehensive review of printing and publishing and translation services, including, inter alia, full costing of in- and out-of-house printing, publishing and translation and an analysis of the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management costing methodologies, with due consideration to quality and confidentiality, and without prejudice to the quality of all language services and respect for the specificities of the six official languages, and to submit a report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-sixth session, to be considered in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2012-2013;

69. Recalls paragraph I.83 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and stresses that particular attention should be given to the provision of remote access to terminology and reference resources to all translators, editors and verbatim reporters working off site;

Part II. Political affairs

Section 4. Disarmament

70. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to provide the United Nations regional centres for peace and disarmament with the necessary resources to discharge their mandates;

Section 5. Peacekeeping operations

71. Requests the Secretary-General to make further concrete efforts to ensure proper representation of troop-contributing countries in the Department of Peacekeeping Operations and the Department of Field Support, taking into account their contribution to United Nations peacekeeping;

Part III. International justice and law

Section 7. International Court of Justice

72. Takes note of paragraph III.4 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and decides to increase the pool of law clerks by six P-2 posts;

Section 8. Legal affairs

73. Decides not to abolish the one General Service (Other level) post in the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea;

Part IV. International cooperation for development

74. Requests the Secretary-General to intensify his efforts to mobilize adequate resources from all sources to support the mandates related to sections 10 and 11 of the programme budget during the biennium 2010-2011;

75. Reaffirms its resolutions 57/7 of 4 November 2002 and 57/300 of 20 December 2002, by which it established the Office of the Special Adviser on Africa, and its resolution 56/227 of 24 December 2001, by which it established the

Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States;

76. Also reaffirms the relevant provisions of its resolutions 62/236 of 27 December 2007 and 63/260 of 24 December 2008 and, in this regard, requests the Secretary-General to implement the provisions pertaining to the Office of the Special Adviser on Africa and the Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States in those resolutions accordingly, in full and without delay;

Section 9. Economic and social affairs

77. Decides to establish one P-5 post and one P-4 post to provide programme support to the Development Account;

Section 10. Least developed countries, landlocked developing countries and small island developing States

78. Recalls paragraph 75 of its resolution 62/236 and requests a detailed description of the new donor strategy of the Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States in the proposed programme budget biennium 2012-2013;

79. Emphasizes the crucial importance of the Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States, established as the follow-up mechanism to ensure the timely and effective implementation of the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010,[29] the Almaty Programme of Action: Addressing the Special Needs of Landlocked Developing Countries within a New Global Framework for Transit Transport Cooperation for Landlocked and Transit Developing Countries,[30] and the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States;[31]

Section 12. Trade and development

82. Encourages the Secretary-General to broaden the efforts of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development in supporting the strengthening of regional economic integration in Africa by providing, within the allocation to the Conference, technical assistance and capacity-building in the areas of trade, customs and infrastructure, including the strengthening of statistical capacity;

Section 16. International drug control, crime prevention and criminal justice

83. Expresses its appreciation to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime for having successfully drawn the attention of the international community to the security problem in West Africa related to illicit trafficking and transnational organized crime, requests the Secretary-General to provide an effective level of support to the joint United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime/Department of Peacekeeping Operations/Department of Political Affairs/United Nations Office for West Africa/International Criminal Police Organization programme concept known as the West Africa Coast Initiative, and recommends that a sufficient share of the regular budget continue to be allocated to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to enable it to carry out its mandate in a consistent and stable manner;

84. Welcomes the initiative of the Secretary-General to open a programme office of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in Barbados to collaborate with the Caribbean Community in such areas as corruption, drug trafficking, international judicial cooperation and the promotion of firearms control, and looks forward to its establishment;

85. Expresses concern regarding the overall financial situation of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and requests the Secretary-General to submit proposals in his proposed programme budget for the biennium 2012-2013 to ensure that the Office has sufficient resources to carry out its mandate;

Part V. Regional cooperation for development

86. Emphasizes the important contribution that the regional commissions are making towards the implementation of the development agenda and other mandates given to them arising from the outcome of the Millennium Summit, the Conference on the World Financial and Economic Crisis and Its Impact on Development and other major United Nations conferences and summits in the economic, social and related fields;

87. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the resource requirements of the commissions are allocated in such a way as to enable them to fully implement their mandates and contribute to the implementation of the development priorities and mandates of the Organization;

Section 17. Economic and social development in Africa

88. Recalls paragraph V.28 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] expresses its concern at the negative impact of post reductions on programme implementation, and decides to review the staffing requirements of the Economic Commission for Africa from all sources of funding;

89. Recognizes that the repositioning of the Economic Commission for Africa is a crucial element of reform shaping the work of the Commission, and notes that the repositioning will enhance the role of the Commission in strengthening coordination and collaboration among United Nations agencies and other agencies;

Part VI. Human rights and humanitarian affairs

Section 23. Human rights

90. Encourages Member States participating in the Junior Professional Officer programme to increase sponsorship of Junior Professional Officers from developing countries;

91. Requests the Secretary-General, in proposing posts for the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, to ensure their conformity with relevant legislative mandates, including those of the Human Rights Council;

92. Also requests the Secretary-General to assess the impact of the doubling of regular budgetary resources over the last two bienniums on all activities of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-sixth session;

93. Recalls paragraph 100 of its resolution 62/236, in which it decided to use the revised estimates for the biennium 2004-2005 as the basis for the agreed doubling of resources of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights;

94. Takes note of the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services[16] and the related note of the Secretary-General[17] and requests the Secretary-General to ensure the full implementation of the recommendations contained therein, including those concerning the activities of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in the field, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

95. Stresses that the establishment of any future regional offices of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights requires thorough consultations with all concerned Member States, in accordance with all relevant legislative mandates;

Section 25. Palestinian refugees

96. Reaffirms its resolution 3331B (XXIX) of 17 December 1974, stating that expenses for salaries of international staff in the service of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestinian Refugees in the Near East, which would otherwise be a charge on voluntary contributions, should be financed by the regular budget of the United Nations for the duration of the Agency's mandate;

97. Notes with concern the significant reduction in the total resources for the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestinian Refugees in the Near East over the past ten years while the overall workload and responsibilities of the Agency have continued to increase;

98. Notes with concern the acute cash crisis of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestinian Refugees in the Near East and requests the Secretary-General to propose a possible funding mechanism to address this issue;

99. Notes with appreciation the valuable work done by the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestinian Refugees in the Near East, and decides to approve the establishment of the following posts for the Agency: one D-2 for Director of Human Resources; one D-1 for Spokesperson; one P-5 for Ombudsperson; one P-5 for the Deputy Director, Relief and Social Services and Senior Poverty Adviser; one P-5 Senior Investigator; one P-4 Health Policy Planning Officer; one P-4 Monitoring and Evaluation Officer; one P-4 Field Programme Support Officer (Lebanon); one P-4 for the Special Assistant to the Deputy Commissioner-General; one P-3 Human Resources Officer; and one P-3 Monitoring and Evaluation Officer;

Part VII. Public information

Section 27. Public information

100. Notes with concern that the review requested in paragraph 120 of its resolution 62/236 has not been carried out, and requests the Secretary-General to undertake the requested review as a matter of priority and to include the results of the review in the first performance report on the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011;

101. Recalls paragraph VII.19 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and encourages the Secretary-General to ensure intensive collaboration with the Department of Peacekeeping Operations and the Department of Field Support to promote a positive image of the Organization's peacekeeping activities and to support the public information components of peacekeeping missions;

102. Stresses the importance of the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat addressing effectively and in a timely manner any allegations of misconduct against peacekeepers, as well as other allegations against the Secretariat;

103. Decides to reclassify one P-2 post (Chinese web writer) to the P-3 level and one P-2 post (Russian web writer) to the P-3 level, with a view to ensuring the same level of support in those languages as in the other four official languages;

104. Stresses the importance of publishing United Nations information materials and translating important documents in languages other than United Nations official languages, with a view to reaching the widest possible spectrum of audiences and extending the United Nations message to all the corners of the world in order to strengthen international support for the activities of the Organization;

105. Requests the Secretary-General to promote public awareness of and to mobilize support for the work of the United Nations at the local level through all possible means of communication, including publications, the broadcasting of news and the network of United Nations information centres, bearing in mind that information in local languages has the strongest impact on local populations;

106. Recognizes the vital role of the United Nations information centres in promoting awareness about the United Nations, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to make efforts to mobilize resources for the effective functioning of United Nations information centres in developing countries;

107. Requests the Secretary-General to establish a United Nations information centre in Luanda to address the special needs of Portuguese-speaking African countries, and, in this context, welcomes the offer made by the Government of Angola to provide rent-free premises;

108. Also requests the Secretary-General to continue to expand the scope of press releases in addition to the existing languages in order to widen the United Nations message, assuring their comprehensiveness and up-to-date nature and ensuring their accuracy;

Part VIII. Common support services

109. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[32] subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

110. Reaffirms the importance of including the participation of the Organization's most knowledgeable staff in the implementation of the enterprise resource planning, enterprise content management, customer relationship management and disaster recovery and business continuity programmes and of developing in-house expertise and knowledge in the implementation of these programmes in order to support the systems after deployment;

Section 28A. Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Management

Enterprise resource planning project

111. Recognizes the considerable operational and financial risks involved in the implementation of the enterprise resource planning system, and stresses the need for the Secretary-General to ensure full accountability and clear lines of responsibility for the project;

112. Reaffirms that the enterprise resource planning system will serve as the backbone for implementation by the United Nations of the International Public Sector Accounting Standards;

113. Endorses the proposal of the Secretary-General[33] to deploy the enterprise resource planning project through the "pilot first" option, and, in this context, requests the Secretary-General to present options for lowering the cost of the project;

114. Approves 24,192,200 dollars for the enterprise resource planning system to be funded from the regular budget for the biennium 2010-2011, including 11,775,900 dollars under section 28A, and authorizes the Secretary-General to enter into commitments in the amount of 12,416,300 dollars, taking due consideration of the lower-cost options referred to in paragraph 113 of the present resolution;

115. Authorizes the Secretary-General to enter into commitments in a total amount not to exceed 28,516,500 dollars for the support account for peacekeeping operations for the period from 1 July 2009 to 30 June 2010 in respect of the support account share for the enterprise resource planning system and to report on the expenditures incurred and justifications for the utilization of resources in the context of the performance report for the support account for the period from 1 July 2009 to 30 June 2010;

[32] A/64/7/Adds.8, 9 and 11 and A/64/531.

[33] See A/64/380.

116. Notes that future remaining requirements for the enterprise resource planning system will be included in subsequent budget proposals for the regular budget and the support account for peacekeeping operations for the financial periods until 2013;

117. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to ensure that the General Assembly is kept informed, on an annual basis, of the progress of the enterprise resource planning project, including milestones and deliverables, progress made, outstanding activities and utilization of resources, and to provide information on the resources that could be redistributed to the enterprise resource planning project as a result of the merging of any elements of other enterprise systems with the enterprise resource planning system;

Section 28C. Office of Human Resources Management

118. Recalls paragraph 51 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and requests the Secretary-General not to take measures on geographic mobility until the consideration by the General Assembly of the proposals contained in the report requested in section VII of its resolution 63/250;

Section 28D. Office of Central Support Services
Business continuity management

119. Recalls section III of its resolution 63/268;

120. Notes the work undertaken and progress achieved so far by the Secretary-General on business continuity management in response to the business risks faced by the United Nations;

121. Decides to appropriate an amount of 2.2 million dollars for business continuity management, and requests the Secretary-General to submit a fully justified proposal for post and non-post resources in relation to the work currently under way on business continuity management in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2012-2013;

122. Requests the Secretary-General, when developing comprehensive administrative and technical procedures and management and construction project guidelines for the implementation of future construction and major maintenance projects, to ensure that its relevant resolutions are strictly abided by, in particular on procurement, and to draw upon the relevant lessons learned in the planning and implementation of the capital master plan;

Section 28G. Administration, Nairobi

123. Recalls paragraph 101 of its resolution 52/220 of 22 December 1997;

124. Reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to continue to bring the financial arrangements of the United Nations Office at Nairobi into line with those of similar United Nations administrative offices;

Section 29. Office of Information and Communications Technology

125. Recognizes the benefits of the implementation of the customer relationship management and enterprise content management systems and reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to continue to implement these applications throughout the Organization as appropriate;

126. Decides not to appropriate resources for the enterprise content management and customer relationship management systems and requests the Secretary-General to submit a fully justified proposal for post and non-post resources in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2012-2013;

127. Decides to approve resources in the amount of 1.5 million dollars for the development of a unified disaster recovery plan and for maintaining the Brindisi enterprise data centre;

Part IX. Internal oversight

Section 30. Internal oversight

128. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the Office of Internal Oversight Services designs and implements a plan to complete a risk analysis in preparation for its 2012-2013 biennium budget request;

129. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the Office of Internal Oversight Services prepares a workplan for investigations;

130. Reaffirms its resolution 63/287 and takes note of paragraphs IX.21 and IX.23 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;[27]

Part X. Jointly financed activities

131. Recalls paragraph X.17 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] in which the Advisory Committee expressed concern that the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination might be taking on substantive functions that its member organizations were carrying out rather than continuing its focus on system-wide coordination;

132. Decides to reclassify one P-5 post to the D-1 level and to establish one P-4 post for the secretariat of the Chief Executives Board;

Part XI. Capital expenditures

133. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[34] subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

134. Recalls paragraph XI.9 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and decides to reduce provisions under section 33 by 10 million dollars;

135. Stresses the importance of a sound project management framework for the strategic heritage plan, with clearly assigned roles and responsibilities of all entities involved at Headquarters and at the United Nations Office at Geneva, and requests the Secretary-General to include detailed information in his progress report on the strategic heritage plan to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

[34] A/64/7/Add.11.

136. Recalls paragraph XI.11 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and stresses that the renovation phase of the strategic heritage plan shall not start before the General Assembly has taken a decision on this matter and the capital master plan has been completed;

137. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on the outcome of the conceptual engineering study of the strategic heritage plan, including an estimate of the overall costs and timeline of the project, to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

138. Calls upon the Secretary-General to ensure that the conceptual engineering study for the strategic heritage plan identifies all viable alternatives in the most cost-effective and efficient manner;

Part XII. Safety and security

139. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;[35]

2. The income from staff assessment shall be credited to the Tax Equalization Fund in accordance with the provisions of General Assembly resolution 973 (X) of 15 December 1955;

3. Direct expenses of the United Nations Postal Administration, services to visitors, the sale of statistical products, catering operations and related services, garage operations, television services and the sale of publications not provided for under the budget appropriations shall be charged against the income derived from those activities.

C

Financing of appropriations for the year 2010

The General Assembly

Resolves that, for the year 2010:

1. Budget appropriations consisting of 2,578,014,550 United States dollars, being half of the appropriation of 5,156,029,100 dollars approved for the biennium 2010-2011 by the General Assembly in paragraph 1 of resolution A above, minus 67,745,000 dollars, being the net decrease in revised appropriations for the biennium 2008-2009 approved by the Assembly in its resolutions 63/268 of 7 April 2009 and 63/283 of 30 June 2009, and its resolution 64/242 of 23 December 2009 on the programme budget for the biennium 2008-2009, offset by the amount of 45 million dollars not assessed pursuant to resolution 63/263 XII, shall be financed in accordance with regulations 3.1 and 3.2 of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations,[1] as follows:

[1] ST/SGB/2003/7.

(a) 177,278,350 dollars, consisting of 16,494,050 dollars, being half of the estimated income other than staff assessment approved for the biennium 2010-2011 under resolution B above, plus 19,686,400 dollars, being the increase in income other than staff assessment for the biennium 2008-2009 approved by the Assembly in its resolution 64/242 of 23 December 2009 on the programme budget for the biennium 2008-2009, plus 141,097,900 dollars, being the unutilized surplus of the final appropriations for the biennium 2006-2007 as at 31 December 2007;

(b) 2,350,606,850 dollars, being the assessment on Member States in accordance with its resolution 64/248 of 23 December 2009 on the scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations;

(c) 27,384,350 dollars, being half of the re-costing amount for the year 2010, which will not be assessed on Member States in 2010, in accordance with paragraph 51 of its resolution 64/243 of 23 December 2009;

2. There shall be set off against the assessment on Member States, in accordance with the provisions of General Assembly resolution 973 (X) of 15 December 1955, their respective share in the Tax Equalization Fund in the total amount of 236,006,150 dollars, consisting of:

(a) 260,591,850 dollars, being half of the estimated staff assessment income approved for the biennium 2010-2011 in resolution B above;

(b) 2,579,300 dollars, being the increase in income from staff assessment for the biennium 2008-2009 approved by the Assembly in its resolutions 63/268 of 7 April 2009 and 63/283 of 30 June 2009;

(c) Offset by 27,165,000 dollars, being the decrease in income from staff assessment for the biennium 2008-2009 approved by the Assembly in its resolution 64/242 of 23 December 2009 on the programme budget for the biennium 2008-2009.

Draft resolution IV
Unforeseen and extraordinary expenses for the biennium 2010-2011

The General Assembly,

1. Authorizes the Secretary-General, with the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and subject to the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations[1] and the provisions of paragraph 3 below, to enter into commitments in the biennium 2010-2011 to meet unforeseen and extraordinary expenses arising either during or subsequent to the biennium, provided that the concurrence of the Advisory Committee shall not be necessary for:

(a) Such commitments not exceeding a total of 8 million United States dollars in any one year of the biennium 2010-2011 as the Secretary-General certifies relate to the maintenance of peace and security;

(b) Such commitments as the President of the International Court of Justice certifies relate to expenses occasioned by:

(i) The designation of ad hoc judges (Statute of the International Court of Justice, Article 31), not exceeding a total of 200,000 dollars;

(ii) The calling of witnesses and the appointment of experts (Statute, Article 50) and the appointment of assessors (Statute, Article 30), not exceeding a total of 50,000 dollars;

(iii) The maintenance in office for the completion of cases of judges who have not been re-elected (Statute, Article 13, paragraph 3), not exceeding a total of 40,000 dollars;

(iv) The payment of pensions and travel and removal expenses of retiring judges and travel and removal expenses and installation grants of members of the Court (Statute, Article 32, paragraph 7), not exceeding a total of 410,000 dollars;

(v) The work of the Court or its Chambers away from The Hague (Statute, Article 22), not exceeding a total of 25,000 dollars;

(c) Such commitments not exceeding a total of 1 million dollars in the biennium 2010-2011 as the Secretary-General certifies are required for security measures pursuant to section XI, paragraph 6, of General Assembly resolution 59/276 of 23 December 2004;

2. Resolves that the Secretary-General shall report to the Advisory Committee and to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth and sixty-sixth sessions all commitments made under the provisions of the present resolution, together with the circumstances relating thereto, and shall submit supplementary estimates to the Assembly in respect of such commitments;

3. Decides that, for the biennium 2010-2011, if a decision of the Security Council results in the need for the Secretary-General to enter into commitments relating to the maintenance of peace and security in an amount exceeding 10 million dollars in respect of the decision, that matter shall be brought to the General Assembly, or, if the Assembly is suspended or not in session, a resumed or special session of the Assembly shall be convened by the Secretary-General to consider the matter.

Draft resolution V
Working Capital Fund for the biennium 2010-2011

The General Assembly,

Resolves that:

1. The Working Capital Fund shall be established for the biennium 2010-2011 in the amount of 150 million United States dollars;

2. Member States shall make advances to the Working Capital Fund in accordance with the scale of assessments adopted by the General Assembly for contributions of Member States to the budget for the year 2010;

3. There shall be set off against this allocation of advances:

(a) Credits to Member States resulting from transfers made in 1959 and 1960 from the surplus account to the Working Capital Fund in an adjusted amount of 1,025,092 dollars;

(b) Cash advances paid by Member States to the Working Capital Fund for the biennium 2008-2009 in accordance with General Assembly resolution 62/240 of 22 December 2007;

4. Should the credits and advances paid by any Member State to the Working Capital Fund for the biennium 2008-2009 exceed the amount of that Member State's advance under the provisions of paragraph 2 above, the excess shall be set off against the amount of the contributions payable by the Member State in respect of the biennium 2010-2011;

5. The Secretary-General is authorized to advance from the Working Capital Fund:

(a) Such sums as may be necessary to finance budgetary appropriations pending the receipt of contributions; sums so advanced shall be reimbursed as soon as receipts from contributions are available for that purpose;

(b) Such sums as may be necessary to finance commitments that may be duly authorized under the provisions of the resolutions adopted by the General Assembly, in particular resolution 64/246 of 24 December 2009 relating to unforeseen and extraordinary expenses; the Secretary-General shall make provision in the budget estimates for reimbursing the Working Capital Fund;

(c) Such sums as may be necessary to continue the revolving fund to finance miscellaneous self-liquidating purchases and activities, which, together with net sums outstanding for the same purpose, do not exceed 200,000 dollars; advances in excess of 200,000 dollars may be made with the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;

(d) With the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee, such sums as may be required to finance payments of advance insurance premiums where the period of insurance extends beyond the end of the biennium in which payment is made; the Secretary-General shall make provision in the budget estimates of each biennium, during the life of the related policies, to cover the charges applicable to each biennium;

(e) Such sums as may be necessary to enable the Tax Equalization Fund to meet current commitments pending the accumulation of credits; such advances shall be repaid as soon as credits are available in the Tax Equalization Fund;

6. Should the provision in paragraph 1 above prove inadequate to meet the purposes normally related to the Working Capital Fund, the Secretary-General is authorized to utilize, in the biennium 2010-2011, cash from special funds and accounts in his custody, under the conditions approved by the General Assembly in its resolution 1341 (XIII) of 13 December 1958, or the proceeds of loans authorized by the Assembly.

35. The Fifth Committee also recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft decision:

Draft decision
United Nations Office for Partnerships

The General Assembly takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Office for Partnerships.[4]

[4] A/64/91.

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 58/270 of 23 December 2003, 60/246 of 23 December 2005, 61/263 of 4 April 2007, 62/236 of 22 December 2007 and 63/262 of 24 December 2008, Reaffirming its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986, 42/211 of 21 December 1987, 45/248 B, section VI, of 21 December 1990, 55/231 of 23 December 2000, 56/253 of 24 December 2001, 58/269 of 23 December 2003, 58/270 of 23 December 2003, 59/276, section XI, of 23 December 2004, 60/247 A to C of 23 December 2005, 60/283 of 7 July 2006, 62/237 A to C of 22 December 2007 and 63/266 of 24 December 2008,

Reaffirming also the respective mandates of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and the Committee for Programme and Coordination in the consideration of the proposed programme budget,

Reaffirming further the role of the General Assembly, through the Fifth Committee, in carrying out a thorough analysis and approval of posts and financial resources, as well as of human resources policies,

Having considered the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011,[1] the report of the Secretary-General on the enterprise content management and customer relationship management systems and proposal for a unified disaster recovery and business continuity plan,[2] the first progress report of the Secretary-General on the enterprise resource planning project,[3] the second progress report of the Secretary-General on the adoption of International Public Sector Accounting Standards by the United Nations,[4] the report of the Secretary-General on business continuity management,[5] the sixth progress report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of projects financed from the Development Account,[6] the reports on safety and security issues,[7] the letter dated 10 December 2009 from the President of the General Assembly addressed to the Chairman of the Fifth Committee,[8] the report of the Secretary-General on limited budgetary discretion[9] and the related reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[10]

report of the Secretary-General on the changes to the biennial programme plan as reflected in the programme budget for 2008-2009[12] and the consolidated report of the Secretary-General on the changes to the biennial programme plan as reflected in the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011,[13]

Having considered further the report of the Independent Audit Advisory Committee on the proposed programme budget for internal oversight for the biennium 2010-2011,[14] the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the audit of human resources management at the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights,[15] the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the efficiency of the implementation of the mandate of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights[16] and the related note by the Secretary-General,[17] the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the audit of conference services put at the disposal of the Human Rights Council in 2009[18] and the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the comprehensive management audit of the Department of Safety and Security,[19]

Having considered the notes by the Secretary-General transmitting the reports of the Joint Inspection Unit on the review of management of Internet websites in the United Nations system organizations,[20] the review of information and communication technology hosting services in the United Nations system organizations,[21] liaison offices in the United Nations system[22] and a common payroll for United Nations system organizations,[23] as well as the notes by the Secretary-General transmitting his comments and those of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination thereon,[24]

Recognizing the detrimental effect of the withholding of assessed contributions on the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations and the ability to implement mandates and programmes,

1. Stresses that all Member States should fulfil their financial obligations as set out in the Charter of the United Nations on time, in full and without conditions;

2. Reaffirms that the Fifth Committee is the appropriate Main Committee of the General Assembly entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters and reaffirms the role of the Fifth Committee in carrying out a thorough analysis and approving human and financial resources and policies, with a view to ensuring full, effective and efficient implementation of all mandated programmes and activities and the implementation of policies in this regard;

3. Also reaffirms rule 153 of its rules of procedure;

4. Further reaffirms the Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation;[25]

5. Reaffirms the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations;[26]

6. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination as contained in chapter II, section A of its report;[11]

7. Also endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

Policy/cross-cutting issues

8. Reaffirms the established budgetary procedures and methodologies, based on its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986 and 42/211 of 21 December 1987;

9. Also reaffirms paragraph 21 of its resolution 51/221 B of 18 December 1996, in which it decided that no changes to the budget methodology, to established budgetary procedures and practices or to the financial regulations could be implemented without prior review and approval by the General Assembly, through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, in accordance with agreed budgetary procedures;

10. Stresses the need for the Member States to participate fully in the budget preparation process, from its early stages and throughout the process;

11. Emphasizes the importance of providing the consistent and timely information necessary to enable Member States to make well-informed decisions;

12. Reiterates the priorities of the Organization for the period 2010-2011 as outlined in its resolution 63/266 of 24 December 2008;

13. Also reiterates that the allocation of resources should reflect fully the priorities established in the biennial programme plan;

14. Notes with concern that the allocation of resources in the proposed programme budget does not track precisely the priorities of the Organization, as adopted in resolution 63/266 of 24 December 2008, and stresses the need to correct imbalances in the allocation of resources among the three pillars of the Organization;

15. Recalls paragraph 10 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] stresses the need for presenting the budget in a comprehensive and holistic manner, and requests the Secretary-General, for all future proposed programme budgets, to take the necessary steps to ensure the fullest possible picture of the Organization's requirements for the full biennium;

16. Urges the Secretary-General to ensure that a complete and timely budget is presented to Member States in the future;

[27] Official Records of the General Assembly, Sixty-fourth Session, Supplement No. 7 (A/64/7).

17. Notes the practice of incremental budgeting where only new requirements are justified and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that whenever new proposals lead to requests for additional resources, sufficient efforts are made to meet the new requirements using existing resources;

18. Also notes the Secretary-General's effort to meet the emerging needs of the Organization by redeploying existing posts and non-post resources, in accordance with the established rules and procedures and relevant resolutions of the General Assembly;

19. Reaffirms its request to the Secretary-General, in future budget submissions, to propose measures to offset budget increases, wherever possible, without undermining the implementation of mandated programmes and activities;

20. Requests the Secretary-General to intensify efforts to ensure that direct and quantifiable objectives, expected accomplishments and indicators of achievement are included in future proposed programme budgets that are directly and clearly linked to the objectives of the programme and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session through the Committee for Programme and Coordination;

21. Recalls paragraph 29 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and stresses that the proposed programme budget for 2012-2013 should provide a clear picture of the reform measures that have been taken, their budgetary implications and the efficiency gains derived from their implementation as well as an assessment of progress in accomplishing the objectives;

22. Also recalls paragraph 21 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] notes that cost accounting is more suitably applied to the support services of the Organization and may not be suitable for use in its substantive work, and requests the Secretary-General to develop an effective methodology for measuring and conducting comparisons over time of the costs of support services in the budget and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

23. Reaffirms the role of the Committee for Programme and Coordination as the main subsidiary organ of the General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council for planning, programming and coordination;

24. Notes chapter I, section A, of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and in this context reiterates that the Committee for Programme and Coordination is the sole subsidiary organ of the General Assembly for planning, programming and coordination;

25. Emphasizes the importance of continuous efforts to reduce administrative costs as a proportion of the regular budget with a view to maximizing the resources available for programmatic purposes;

26. Recalls paragraph 14 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] stresses that results-based budgeting and results-based management are mutually supportive management tools and that improved implementation of results-based budgeting enhances both management and accountability in the Secretariat, and encourages the Secretary-General to continue his efforts in this regard;

27. Also recalls paragraph 1 of its resolution 63/247 of 23 December 2005, in which it approved the recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination, and requests the Secretary-General to further improve the results-based budgeting framework and the qualitative aspects of indicators of achievements, as recommended by the Committee for Programme and Coordination;

28. Reaffirms paragraph 28 of resolution 55/231 of 23 December 2000 and stresses the importance of adequate training to ensure the full implementation of results-based budgeting;

29. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that, in presenting the programme budget, expected accomplishments and, where possible, indicators of achievement are included to measure achievements in the implementation of the programmes of the Organization and not those of individual Member States;

Human resources, vacancy rates and staffing

30. Takes note of paragraph 44 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] stresses that, for budgetary purposes, a post is defined as vacant only if no person is charged against the post, and notes that the enterprise resource planning system should assist in providing comprehensive information on vacancies;

31. Stresses the importance of having a comprehensive succession plan for the Organization, including, inter alia, on the language services, and in this regard requests the Secretary-General to formulate a strategy on succession planning for all departments of the Secretariat and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

32. Requests the Secretary-General to examine the continuing need for posts that fall vacant owing to retirements in the biennium 2010-2011 and to report thereon in the context of the second performance report;

33. Reaffirms the role of the General Assembly with regard to the structure of the Secretariat, including the creation, conversion, suppression and redeployment of posts, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to provide the Assembly with comprehensive information on all decisions involving established and temporary high-level posts, including equivalent positions financed from the regular budget and from extrabudgetary resources;

34. Also reaffirms Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter, further reaffirms sections IX and X of its resolution 63/250 of 24 December 2008, and requests the Secretary-General to recruit staff to fill the posts approved in the budget for the biennium 2010-2011 with a view to improving geographical representation and gender balance in the Secretariat, with due regard to the principle of equitable geographical distribution;

35. Regrets the slow pace of recruitment in the Organization and requests the Secretary-General to fill vacancies expeditiously, in accordance with relevant General Assembly resolutions and existing provisions governing recruitment in the United Nations;

36. Reaffirms that the vacancy rate is a tool for budgetary calculations and should not be used to achieve budgetary savings;

37. Decides that a vacancy rate of 9.6 per cent for Professional staff, 4 per cent for General Service staff, 14.0 per cent for Professional field security staff and 14.7 per cent for General Service field security staff, respectively, shall be used as a basis for the calculation of the budget for the biennium 2010-2011;

Extrabudgetary resources

38. Welcomes the efforts by donors to continue to support priorities approved by the General Assembly;

39. Stresses that all extrabudgetary posts must be administered and managed with the same rigour as regular budget posts;

40. Also stresses that extrabudgetary resources shall be used in consistency with the policies, aims and activities of the Organization, and requests the Secretary-General to provide information on the financial and human resource implications of the use of extrabudgetary resources in the Organization in his next proposed programme budget;

41. Requests the Secretary-General to include, in future budget submissions, clear and specific information on extrabudgetary resources, in order to make a distinction between voluntary and assessed contributions and programme support costs;

Consultants

42. Recalls paragraphs IV.8 and IV.41 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[27] and requests the Secretary-General to select consultants and experts, as well as staff charged against general temporary assistance, on as wide a geographical basis as possible, in accordance with Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter and the provisions of General Assembly resolution 53/221 of 7 April 1999;

43. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that, in future programme budget proposals, requests for consultants and experts are clearly and separately identified in the programme narratives;

Training

44. Reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to allocate the approved resources for training on the basis of need and in an equitable manner, throughout the Secretariat, including for duty stations and regional commissions, and in this context stresses that equal training opportunities should be available for all staff, in accordance with their functions and categories;

45. Stresses that workshops, seminars and training courses should take advantage of the diverse sources of training opportunities available throughout the regions of the world;

Conference services and publications

46. Emphasizes the importance of ensuring that there is no discriminatory treatment among the principle organs of the United Nations and the Main Committees and subsidiary bodies, and that they are provided with adequate and quality conference services and support;

Non-post resources

47. Decides to reduce non-post resources by 2 per cent, other than under sections 35 and 28D of the proposed programme budget;

48. Also decides to reduce by 7 per cent the overall requirements for consultants and experts in the biennium 2010-2011;

49. Further decides to reduce the overall requirements for external printing by 1 million United States dollars;

Recosting

50. Acknowledges the current challenges caused by the global financial crisis;

51. Decides not to assess in 2010 half of the amount for recosting pending review of the issue in the context of the first performance report;

52. Requests the Secretary-General, in the context of the first performance report on the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011, to report on options for protecting the United Nations against fluctuations in exchange rates and inflation drawing on the experience of other organizations of the United Nations system, as set out in section V of the second performance report of the Secretary-General on the programme budget for the biennium 2008-2009;[28]

Part I. Overall policymaking, direction and coordination

Section 1. Overall policymaking, direction and coordination

53. Decides to establish a dedicated post of Executive Director of the United Nations Office at Nairobi at the level of Under-Secretary-General;

54. Recalls paragraph I.18 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and decides to authorize the Advisory Committee to meet for an additional four weeks per biennium for a total of 78 weeks, on an experimental basis;

55. Notes the ongoing management review of the secretariat of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;

56. Encourages the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, within its own mandate, to review its working methods and to inform the General Assembly of the results of the review;

57. Recalls paragraph 46 of its resolution 62/228 of 22 December 2007, and decides to establish a post of legal research officer at the P-4 level for the Registry of the United Nations Dispute Tribunal in New York;

Section 2. General Assembly and Economic and Social Council affairs and conference management

58. Recalls that all documents should be translated in conformity with relevant General Assembly resolutions;

[28] A/64/545.

59. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that all duty stations are given equal treatment in respect of the application of modern technologies;

60. Emphasizes the paramount importance of the equality of the six official languages of the United Nations;

61. Requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to ensure the highest quality of interpretation and translation services in all official languages;

62. Also requests the Secretary-General to improve the on-time submission of documents and to institute measures for the accountability of the author departments for the late submission of documents;

63. Takes note of the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services on the audit of conference services put at the disposal of the Human Rights Council in 2009;[18]

64. Notes with concern the circumstances that led to insufficient conference services for the Human Rights Council in 2009, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the Council, as well as other entities served by the Conference Services Division at the United Nations Office at Geneva, are provided with all necessary conference services to support their activities;

65. Requests the Secretary-General to report on ways to better address the needs of the Organization through enhancing the efficiency of services provided by the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management;

66. Notes that the Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review should endeavour to apply in its reports the word limits established in the annex to the Human Rights Council President's statement 9/2, and requests the Secretary-General to report on any additional requirements incurred in the context of the second performance report on the programme budget for 2010-2011;

67. Stresses the need for programme managers, and duty stations resourced through section 2 of the programme budget, to be cost-effective and efficient in the use of services from the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management, particularly with respect to the effective functioning of the global management of conference services, and requests the Secretary-General to develop mechanisms that would enhance accountability in this regard;

68. Requests the Secretary-General to undertake a comprehensive review of printing and publishing and translation services, including, inter alia, full costing of in- and out-of-house printing, publishing and translation and an analysis of the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management costing methodologies, with due consideration to quality and confidentiality, and without prejudice to the quality of all language services and respect for the specificities of the six official languages, and to submit a report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-sixth session, to be considered in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2012-2013;

69. Recalls paragraph I.83 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and stresses that particular attention should be given to the provision of remote access to terminology and reference resources to all translators, editors and verbatim reporters working off site;

Part II. Political affairs

Section 4. Disarmament

70. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to provide the United Nations regional centres for peace and disarmament with the necessary resources to discharge their mandates;

Section 5. Peacekeeping operations

71. Requests the Secretary-General to make further concrete efforts to ensure proper representation of troop-contributing countries in the Department of Peacekeeping Operations and the Department of Field Support, taking into account their contribution to United Nations peacekeeping;

Part III. International justice and law

Section 7. International Court of Justice

72. Takes note of paragraph III.4 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and decides to increase the pool of law clerks by six P-2 posts;

Section 8. Legal affairs

73. Decides not to abolish the one General Service (Other level) post in the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea;

Part IV. International cooperation for development

74. Requests the Secretary-General to intensify his efforts to mobilize adequate resources from all sources to support the mandates related to sections 10 and 11 of the programme budget during the biennium 2010-2011;

75. Reaffirms its resolutions 57/7 of 4 November 2002 and 57/300 of 20 December 2002, by which it established the Office of the Special Adviser on Africa, and its resolution 56/227 of 24 December 2001, by which it established the Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States;

76. Also reaffirms the relevant provisions of its resolutions 62/236 of 27 December 2007 and 63/260 of 24 December 2008 and, in this regard, requests the Secretary-General to implement the provisions pertaining to the Office of the Special Adviser on Africa and the Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States in those resolutions accordingly, in full and without delay;

Section 9. Economic and social affairs

77. Decides to establish one P-5 post and one P-4 post to provide programme support to the Development Account;

Section 10. Least developed countries, landlocked developing countries and small island developing States

78. Recalls paragraph 75 of its resolution 62/236 and requests a detailed description of the new donor strategy of the Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States in the proposed programme budget biennium 2012-2013;

79. Emphasizes the crucial importance of the Office of the High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States, established as the follow-up mechanism to ensure the timely and effective implementation of the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010,[29] the Almaty Programme of Action: Addressing the Special Needs of Landlocked Developing Countries within a New Global Framework for Transit Transport Cooperation for Landlocked and Transit Developing Countries,[30] and the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States;[31]

Section 11. United Nations support for the New Partnership for Africa's Development

80. Recalls that the development of Africa is an established priority of the United Nations, and reaffirms its commitment to address the special needs of Africa;

81. Also recalls General Assembly resolution 57/300 of 20 December 2002 and other resolutions calling for the strengthening of mechanisms to support the New Partnership for Africa's Development;

Section 12. Trade and development

82. Encourages the Secretary-General to broaden the efforts of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development in supporting the strengthening of regional economic integration in Africa by providing, within the allocation to the Conference, technical assistance and capacity-building in the areas of trade, customs and infrastructure, including the strengthening of statistical capacity;

Section 16. International drug control, crime prevention and criminal justice

83. Expresses its appreciation to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime for having successfully drawn the attention of the international community to the security problem in West Africa related to illicit trafficking and transnational organized crime, requests the Secretary-General to provide an effective level of support to the joint United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime/Department of

I, resolution 1, annex II.

Peacekeeping Operations/Department of Political Affairs/United Nations Office for West Africa/International Criminal Police Organization programme concept known as the West Africa Coast Initiative, and recommends that a sufficient share of the regular budget continue to be allocated to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to enable it to carry out its mandate in a consistent and stable manner;

84. Welcomes the initiative of the Secretary-General to open a programme office of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in Barbados to collaborate with the Caribbean Community in such areas as corruption, drug trafficking, international judicial cooperation and the promotion of firearms control, and looks forward to its establishment;

85. Expresses concern regarding the overall financial situation of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and requests the Secretary-General to submit proposals in his proposed programme budget for the biennium 2012-2013 to ensure that the Office has sufficient resources to carry out its mandate;

Part V. Regional cooperation for development

86. Emphasizes the important contribution that the regional commissions are making towards the implementation of the development agenda and other mandates given to them arising from the outcome of the Millennium Summit, the Conference on the World Financial and Economic Crisis and Its Impact on Development and other major United Nations conferences and summits in the economic, social and related fields;

87. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the resource requirements of the commissions are allocated in such a way as to enable them to fully implement their mandates and contribute to the implementation of the development priorities and mandates of the Organization;

Section 17. Economic and social development in Africa

88. Recalls paragraph V.28 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] expresses its concern at the negative impact of post reductions on programme implementation, and decides to review the staffing requirements of the Economic Commission for Africa from all sources of funding;

89. Recognizes that the repositioning of the Economic Commission for Africa is a crucial element of reform shaping the work of the Commission, and notes that the repositioning will enhance the role of the Commission in strengthening coordination and collaboration among United Nations agencies and other agencies;

Part VI. Human rights and humanitarian affairs

Section 23. Human rights

90. Encourages Member States participating in the Junior Professional Officer programme to increase sponsorship of Junior Professional Officers from developing countries;

91. Requests the Secretary-General, in proposing posts for the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, to ensure their conformity with relevant legislative mandates, including those of the Human Rights Council;

92. Also requests the Secretary-General to assess the impact of the doubling of regular budgetary resources over the last two bienniums on all activities of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-sixth session;

93. Recalls paragraph 100 of its resolution 62/236, in which it decided to use the revised estimates for the biennium 2004-2005 as the basis for the agreed doubling of resources of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights;

94. Takes note of the report of the Office of Internal Oversight Services[16] and the related note of the Secretary-General,[17] and requests the Secretary-General to ensure the full implementation of the recommendations contained therein, including those concerning the activities of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in the field, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

95. Stresses that the establishment of any future regional offices of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights requires thorough consultations with all concerned Member States, in accordance with all relevant legislative mandates;

Section 25. Palestinian refugees

96. Reaffirms its resolution 3331B (XXIX) of 17 December 1974, stating that expenses for salaries of international staff in the service of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestinian Refugees in the Near East, which would otherwise be a charge on voluntary contributions, should be financed by the regular budget of the United Nations for the duration of the Agency's mandate;

97. Notes with concern the significant reduction in the total resources for the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestinian Refugees in the Near East over the past ten years while the overall workload and responsibilities of the Agency have continued to increase;

98. Also notes with concern the acute cash crisis of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestinian Refugees in the Near East and requests the Secretary-General to propose a possible funding mechanism to address this issue;

99. Notes with appreciation the valuable work done by the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, and decides to approve the establishment of the following posts for the Agency: one D-2 for Director of Human Resources; one D-1 for Spokesperson; one P-5 for Ombudsperson; one P-5 for the Deputy Director, Relief and Social Services and Senior Poverty Adviser; one P-5 Senior Investigator; one P-4 Health Policy Planning Officer; one P-4 Monitoring and Evaluation Officer; one P-4 Field Programme Support Officer (Lebanon); one P-4 for the Special Assistant to the Deputy Commissioner-General; one P-3 Human Resources Officer; and one P-3 Monitoring and Evaluation Officer;

Part VII. Public information

Section 27. Public information

100. Notes with concern that the review requested in paragraph 120 of its resolution 62/236 has not been carried out, and requests the Secretary-General to undertake the requested review as a matter of priority and to include the results of the review in the first performance report on the programme budget for the biennium 2010-2011;

101. Recalls paragraph VII.19 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and encourages the Secretary-General to ensure intensive collaboration with the Department of Peacekeeping Operations and the Department of Field Support to promote a positive image of the Organization's peacekeeping activities and to support the public information components of peacekeeping missions;

102. Stresses the importance of the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat addressing effectively and in a timely manner any allegations of misconduct against peacekeepers, as well as other allegations against the Secretariat;

103. Decides to reclassify one P-2 post (Chinese web writer) to the P-3 level and one P-2 post (Russian web writer) to the P-3 level, with a view to ensuring the same level of support in those languages as in the other four official languages;

104. Stresses the importance of publishing United Nations information materials and translating important documents in languages other than United Nations official languages, with a view to reaching the widest possible spectrum of audiences and extending the United Nations message to all the corners of the world in order to strengthen international support for the activities of the Organization;

105. Requests the Secretary-General to promote public awareness of and to mobilize support for the work of the United Nations at the local level through all possible means of communication, including publications, the broadcasting of news and the network of United Nations information centres, bearing in mind that information in local languages has the strongest impact on local populations;

106. Recognizes the vital role of the United Nations information centres in promoting awareness about the United Nations, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to make efforts to mobilize resources for the effective functioning of United Nations information centres in developing countries;

107. Requests the Secretary-General to establish a United Nations information centre in Luanda to address the special needs of Portuguese-speaking African countries, and, in this context, welcomes the offer made by the Government of Angola to provide rent-free premises;

108. Also requests the Secretary-General to continue to expand the scope of press releases in addition to the existing languages in order to widen the United Nations message, assuring their comprehensiveness and up-to-date nature and ensuring their accuracy;

Part VIII. Common support services

109. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[32] subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

[32] A/64/7/Adds.8, 9 and 11 and A/64/531.

110. Reaffirms the importance of including the participation of the Organization's most knowledgeable staff in the implementation of the enterprise resource planning, enterprise content management, customer relationship management and disaster recovery and business continuity programmes and of developing in-house expertise and knowledge in the implementation of these programmes in order to support the systems after deployment;

Section 28A. Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Management

Enterprise resource planning project

111. Recognizes the considerable operational and financial risks involved in the implementation of the enterprise resource planning system, and stresses the need for the Secretary-General to ensure full accountability and clear lines of responsibility for the project;

112. Reaffirms that the enterprise resource planning system will serve as the backbone for implementation by the United Nations of the International Public Sector Accounting Standards;

113. Endorses the proposal of the Secretary-General[33] to deploy the enterprise resource planning project through the "pilot first" option, and, in this context, requests the Secretary-General to present options for lowering the cost of the project;

114. Approves 24,192,200 dollars for the enterprise resource planning system to be funded from the regular budget for the biennium 2010-2011, including 11,775,900 dollars under section 28A, and authorizes the Secretary-General to enter into commitments in the amount of 12,416,300 dollars, taking due consideration of the lower-cost options referred to in paragraph 113 of the present resolution;

115. Authorizes the Secretary-General to enter into commitments in a total amount not to exceed 28,516,500 dollars for the support account for peacekeeping operations for the period from 1 July 2009 to 30 June 2010 in respect of the support account share for the enterprise resource planning system and to report on the expenditures incurred and justifications for the utilization of resources in the context of the performance report for the support account for the period from 1 July 2009 to 30 June 2010;

116. Notes that future remaining requirements for the enterprise resource planning system will be included in subsequent budget proposals for the regular budget and the support account for peacekeeping operations for the financial periods until 2013;

117. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to ensure that the General Assembly is kept informed, on an annual basis, of the progress of the enterprise resource planning project, including milestones and deliverables, progress made, outstanding activities and utilization of resources, and to provide information on the resources that could be redistributed to the enterprise resource planning project as a result of the merging of any elements of other enterprise systems with the enterprise resource planning system;

[33] See A/64/380.

Section 28C. Office of Human Resources Management

118. Recalls paragraph 51 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and requests the Secretary-General not to take measures on geographic mobility until the consideration by the General Assembly of the proposals contained in the report requested in section VII of its resolution 63/250;

Section 28D. Office of Central Support Services
Business continuity management

119. Recalls section III of its resolution 63/268;

120. Notes the work undertaken and progress achieved so far by the Secretary-General on business continuity management in response to the business risks faced by the United Nations;

121. Decides to appropriate an amount of 2.2 million dollars for business continuity management, and requests the Secretary-General to submit a fully justified proposal for post and non-post resources in relation to the work currently under way on business continuity management in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2012-2013;

122. Requests the Secretary-General, when developing comprehensive administrative and technical procedures and management and construction project guidelines for the implementation of future construction and major maintenance projects, to ensure that its relevant resolutions are strictly abided by, in particular on procurement, and to draw upon the relevant lessons learned in the planning and implementation of the capital master plan;

Section 28G. Administration, Nairobi

123. Recalls paragraph 101 of its resolution 52/220 of 22 December 1997;

124. Reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to continue to bring the financial arrangements of the United Nations Office at Nairobi into line with those of similar United Nations administrative offices;

Section 29. Office of Information and Communications Technology

125. Recognizes the benefits of the implementation of the customer relationship management and enterprise content management systems and reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to continue to implement these applications throughout the Organization as appropriate;

126. Decides not to appropriate resources for the enterprise content management and customer relationship management systems and requests the Secretary-General to submit a fully justified proposal for post and non-post resources in the context of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2012-2013;

127. Decides to approve resources in the amount of 1.5 million dollars for the development of a unified disaster recovery plan and for maintaining the Brindisi enterprise data centre;

Part IX. Internal oversight

Section 30. Internal oversight

128. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the Office of Internal Oversight Services designs and implements a plan to complete a risk analysis in preparation for its 2012-2013 biennium budget request;

129. Also requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the Office of Internal Oversight Services prepares a workplan for investigations;

130. Reaffirms its resolution 63/287 and takes note of paragraphs IX.21 and IX.23 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;[27]

Part X. Jointly financed activities

131. Recalls paragraph X.17 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] in which the Advisory Committee expressed concern that the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination might be taking on substantive functions that its member organizations were carrying out rather than continuing its focus on system-wide coordination;

132. Decides to reclassify one P-5 post to the D-1 level and to establish one P-4 post for the secretariat of the Chief Executives Board;

Part XI. Capital expenditures

133. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[34] subject to the provisions of the present resolution;

134. Recalls paragraph XI.9 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and decides to reduce provisions under section 33 by 10 million dollars;

135. Stresses the importance of a sound project management framework for the strategic heritage plan, with clearly assigned roles and responsibilities of all entities involved at Headquarters and at the United Nations Office at Geneva, and requests the Secretary-General to include detailed information in his progress report on the strategic heritage plan to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

136. Recalls paragraph XI.11 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and stresses that the renovation phase of the strategic heritage plan shall not start before the General Assembly has taken a decision on this matter and the capital master plan has been completed;

137. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on the outcome of the conceptual engineering study of the strategic heritage plan, including an estimate of the overall costs and timeline of the project, to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

[34] A/64/7/Add.11.

138. Calls upon the Secretary-General to ensure that the conceptual engineering study for the strategic heritage plan identifies all viable alternatives in the most cost-effective and efficient manner;

Part XII. Safety and security

139. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;[35]

Part XIII. Development Account

Section 35. Development Account

140. Decides to appropriate an additional 5 million dollars for the Development Account;

Income section 3. Services to the public

141. Takes note of paragraphs IS3.16 and IS3.17 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,[27] and stresses that the United Nations is a non-profit organization;

Limited budgetary discretion

142. Recalls section III of its resolution 60/283, and decides to extend its provisions until 30 April 2010, pending its decision at the first part of its resumed sixty-fourth session.

(a) Field Security Operations: 212,381,300 United States dollars;

(b) Security and Safety Services at the United Nations Office at Vienna: 29,659,200 United States dollars.

The General Assembly,

1. Authorizes the Secretary-General, with the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and subject to the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations[1] and the provisions of paragraph 3 below, to enter into commitments in the biennium 2010-2011 to meet unforeseen and extraordinary expenses arising either during or subsequent to the biennium, provided that the concurrence of the Advisory Committee shall not be necessary for:

(a) Such commitments not exceeding a total of 8 million United States dollars in any one year of the biennium 2010-2011 as the Secretary-General certifies relate to the maintenance of peace and security;

(b) Such commitments as the President of the International Court of Justice certifies relate to expenses occasioned by:

(i) The designation of ad hoc judges (Statute of the International Court of Justice, Article 31), not exceeding a total of 200,000 dollars;

(ii) The calling of witnesses and the appointment of experts (Statute, Article 50) and the appointment of assessors (Statute, Article 30), not exceeding a total of 50,000 dollars;

(iii) The maintenance in office for the completion of cases of judges who have not been re-elected (Statute, Article 13, paragraph 3), not exceeding a total of 40,000 dollars;

(iv) The payment of pensions and travel and removal expenses of retiring judges and travel and removal expenses and installation grants of members of the Court (Statute, Article 32, paragraph 7), not exceeding a total of 410,000 dollars;

(v) The work of the Court or its Chambers away from The Hague (Statute, Article 22), not exceeding a total of 25,000 dollars;

(c) Such commitments not exceeding a total of 1 million dollars in the biennium 2010-2011 as the Secretary-General certifies are required for security measures pursuant to section XI, paragraph 6, of General Assembly resolution 59/276 of 23 December 2004;

2. Resolves that the Secretary-General shall report to the Advisory Committee and to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth and sixty-sixth sessions all commitments made under the provisions of the present resolution, together with the circumstances relating thereto, and shall submit supplementary estimates to the Assembly in respect of such commitments;

3. Decides that, for the biennium 2010-2011, if a decision of the Security Council results in the need for the Secretary-General to enter into commitments relating to the maintenance of peace and security in an amount exceeding 10 million dollars in respect of the decision, that matter shall be brought to the General Assembly, or, if the Assembly is suspended or not in session, a resumed or special session of the Assembly shall be convened by the Secretary-General to consider the matter.

The General Assembly,

Resolves that:

1. The Working Capital Fund shall be established for the biennium 2010-2011 in the amount of 150 million United States dollars;

2. Member States shall make advances to the Working Capital Fund in accordance with the scale of assessments adopted by the General Assembly for contributions of Member States to the budget for the year 2010;

3. There shall be set off against this allocation of advances:

(a) Credits to Member States resulting from transfers made in 1959 and 1960 from the surplus account to the Working Capital Fund in an adjusted amount of 1,025,092 dollars;

(b) Cash advances paid by Member States to the Working Capital Fund for the biennium 2008-2009 in accordance with General Assembly resolution 62/240 of 22 December 2007;

4. Should the credits and advances paid by any Member State to the Working Capital Fund for the biennium 2008-2009 exceed the amount of that Member State's advance under the provisions of paragraph 2 above, the excess shall be set off against the amount of the contributions payable by the Member State in respect of the biennium 2010-2011;

5. The Secretary-General is authorized to advance from the Working Capital Fund:

(a) Such sums as may be necessary to finance budgetary appropriations pending the receipt of contributions; sums so advanced shall be reimbursed as soon as receipts from contributions are available for that purpose;

(b) Such sums as may be necessary to finance commitments that may be duly authorized under the provisions of the resolutions adopted by the General Assembly, in particular resolution 64/246 of 24 December 2009 relating to unforeseen and extraordinary expenses; the Secretary-General shall make provision in the budget estimates for reimbursing the Working Capital Fund;

(c) Such sums as may be necessary to continue the revolving fund to finance miscellaneous self-liquidating purchases and activities, which, together with net sums outstanding for the same purpose, do not exceed 200,000 dollars; advances in excess of 200,000 dollars may be made with the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;

(d) With the prior concurrence of the Advisory Committee, such sums as may be required to finance payments of advance insurance premiums where the period of insurance extends beyond the end of the biennium in which payment is made; the Secretary-General shall make provision in the budget estimates of each biennium, during the life of the related policies, to cover the charges applicable to each biennium;

(e) Such sums as may be necessary to enable the Tax Equalization Fund to meet current commitments pending the accumulation of credits; such advances shall be repaid as soon as credits are available in the Tax Equalization Fund;

6. Should the provision in paragraph 1 above prove inadequate to meet the purposes normally related to the Working Capital Fund, the Secretary-General is authorized to utilize, in the biennium 2010-2011, cash from special funds and accounts in his custody, under the conditions approved by the General Assembly in its resolution 1341 (XIII) of 13 December 1958, or the proceeds of loans authorized by the Assembly.
